THE 1953 ECHOES

TIME XII

ELON COLLEGE PUBLIC SCHOOL
Elon College, North Carolina

Join us now in listening to the echoes of our school days. From the classroom to the basketball court you will hear echoes of unforgettable hours filled with hard work, faithful friends, and thrilling experiences. As your guide for this tour through our school life, we have chosen a prominent member of the graduating class, E. Lonny Elf. He will introduce you to everyone and answer any questions you have. We hope your acquaintance with him will be as enjoyable as ours.

THE ECHOES STAFF

To the graduating classes of yesterday, today, and tomorrow, we dedicate the 1953 ECHOES.

Class Poem

Our high school days are over,
But we should not despair;
For now before us opens
A future bright and fair.
But in our hearts there's sorrow,
And in our eyes there are tears;
We know we now must say goodbye,
To our happy high school years.

The sadness does not linger,
The tears are quickly dried;
With cheerful hearts we look ahead
With joy and with pride.
Our love for you, our dear old school,
Mere words can never tell;
So now to you, dear Elon High,
We bid a fond farewell.

With steps that never falter,
With dreams that never die;
We'll ever strive to reach our goal,
With hope held bravely high.
For nothing is won by wishing,
Unless we add our might;
So in the game of life we seek,
For Honor, Truth, and Right.

Class History

On September 7, 1949, fifty-three bewildered and innocent Freshmen began their first year in Elon College High School. Mrs. R. V. Hendren and Miss M. E. Ridge were our home room teachers. Class officers in Mrs. Hendren's room were: President, Ronny Sharpe; Vice-President, Ann Kinch; Secretary, Tommy Brammer; Treasurer, Doris Ward. The officers in Miss Ridge's home room were: President, Grace Massey; Vice-President, Melvin Chrismon; Secretary and Treasurer, Bonnie McIntyre. During this year we had several weiner roasts and hay rides at Miss Ridge's house.

Being Sophomores gave us more confidence and assurance. Again, Mrs. Hendren and Miss Ridge were our home room teachers. Our class officers in Mrs. Hendren's room were: President, Peggie Robertson; Vice-President, Lucy Everette; Secretary, Nancy Whitesell; Treasurer, Kathryn Pope. The officers in Miss Ridge's room were: President, Melvin Chrismon; Vice-President, Bonnie McIntyre; Secretary and Treasurer, Jo Ann Brannock. Several parties were held in the Home Economics Department.

Juniors! Under the supervision of Mr. W. H. Struhs, Jr., our home room teacher, we selected our class rings; presented our very successful play, "Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Crick"; and planned our Junior-Senior Banquet at the Alamance Hotel, with music by Jimmy Perkins and his orchestra. Our class officers were: President, Melvin Chrismon; Vice-President, Edward Powell; Secretary, Nancy Whitesell; Treasurer, Ronny Sharpe.

Finally came our last and most important year - Senior! Our home room teacher was Mr. W. E. Lowe, Jr., and our class officers were: President, Ronny Sharpe; Vice-President, Melvin Chrismon; Secretary, Lucy Everette; Treasurer, Margaret Bolland. We sponsored several dances as well as selling Christmas cards and magazines to raise money for our eagerly awaited trip to Washington. We looked forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet, and, last but not least, Graduation.

We have come a long way and have had fun with it all. We're graduating, but I'm sure we won't forget our last four years of school. Although we may never have a place in history books, it will hold its place in the heart of each graduating senior.

Class Prophecy

At Home
June 1, 1963

Dear Diary,

I surely am glad I decided to spend my first million by making a tour of the United States. I not only enjoyed the different states, but I also found out what all my classmates of 1953 are doing.

First I went to New York and found that EDWARD POWELL is President of Columbia University. He told me that KATHLEEN McDONALD is a French professor there. I went to see her and I found that she makes a fine one - almost as good as her mother. She told me that MARGARET BOLAND and RONNY SHARPE are married, but there aren't any little Ronnys yet. Margaret is teaching school in the Julliard School of Music, and Ronny is designing another Empire State Building.

I stopped in Texas and was quite surprised to find that CHARLES HOLT has struck oil. It wasn't hard to find him, because there is a huge building in the center of Houston which reads, "HOLT'S OIL COMPANY". I went to see him, and he gave me a whole quart of oil for my Cadillac; he always was generous, you know. He told me that DAVID HAITH, WILEY NANCE and DONALD HAWKINS are donned in blue and white, serving their country faithfully.

As I was driving on, I noticed a brightly lighted neon sign, "BRAMMER BROTHERS' NIGHT CLUB". I knew the name was familiar, so I stopped. I was quite amazed to find that TOMMY BRAMMER and LARRY BRAMMER really are partners in the place; they never did get along in school together very well. Who do you suppose was dancing when I walked in? None other than VIRGINIA BLACK. I could hardly wait for the show to be over so I could talk with her. She told me that ANN KINCH, DORIS WARD, and JEANETTE FOSTER are quite a pretty trio of nurses at a large Naval Hospital in Washington. I bet Jeanette likes this! Larry told me that JACK BOUTCHYARD owns a car factory in Chicago. It seems that MELVIN CHRISMON is in business with him.

I went on my way and stopped in a drug store. Whom do you suppose I saw? H. W. SMITH, who is the owner. JANET METCALF was his head soda jerk, along with MARY ANN HODGE and BETTY PHILLIPS. H. W. told me that JACKY WHITESELL is a contractor, making about $100,000 a year. DANNY WAGONER and R. L. SUTTON are working with him. Betty said that LOIS WILSON and Thomas are married. Lois is just being a good old housewife.

I decided to go back to Elon and Burlington to see if I could round up the others. On my way down to North Carolina, I stopped in Virginia, where I found that KAREN MARTIN is a famous artist. She and her sister have an art studio there.

After I arrived in Elon, the first person I saw was LUCY EVERETTE. What do you suppose she is doing? Teaching school at good old E. H. S. - like mother, like daughter. She told me that BONNIE MCINTYRE is a private secretary for the Mayor of Burlington. Lucy told me that GRACE MASSEY and Harrell Brown's case really was serious. They own a radio shop in Burlington. Grace is handling all the secretarial work; well, she always was a good typist. PEGGY BARNHARDT and BETTY WILLIAMS are secretaries at a large insurance company in Greensboro.

While I was talking with Lucy, GRACE LYNCH appeared. She is teaching music at E. H. S. Her name has been changed to Mrs. William Holt, Jr. She told me that PATSY BARBER and JO ANN BRANNOCK own a very fashionable dress shop in Burlington. KATHRYN POPE is BILLY OWEN's secretary. Billy is a big stockholder in the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company.

It seems I have told you rather well about my classmates of 1953 except for one person who, I think, was one of the most helpful persons in the class. She is none other than BERTHA KEISLING, who is working as a duplicator operator at Western Electric in Burlington.

Well, Diary, it's about time to plan supper. My husband will be expecting a big one, because today is our fourth anniversary. Oh my! There's the telephone. You'll have to excuse me a moment.

My husband just called to tell me that he is going to take me out to the Stork Club tonight to celebrate our anniversary, so I'll say goodby for now.

Last Will and Testament

Elon College
Alamance County
North Carolina

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-three of Elon College High School, being of feeble mind and disposing disposition; and realizing we are soon to depart this school life, do make this our Last Will and Testament, hereby declaring null and void all other wills or promises extracted from us under pressure.

ARTICLE I

To our beloved faculty we leave our splendid grades and good behavior as examples to be held up by them to inspire the oncoming classes to reach the goal that we have attained.

ARTICLE II

To the Junior Class we leave all our Senior privileges, our Senior dignity, and our Senior problems.

To the Sophomores, because of their dire need, we leave our brilliancy and "pep", with sincere hopes that they may use them both in literary and athletic fields.

To the Freshmen we bequeath all the notes we have taken during our four years of classes. We hope they find some among them concerning the classes attended.

ARTICLE III

I, Jacky Whitesell, will my position as handy man to Bill Michael.

I, Doris Ward, leave my sore throat and position as head cheerleader to someone with good lungs.

I, H. W. Smith, will my Ford to anyone who will buy it.

I, Bertha Keisling, will my salesmanship to the rising Seniors.

I, Billy Owen, entrust Bus 42 to David Weaver.

I, Ann Kinch, leave my happy-go-lucky attitude to haunt the halls during future exams.

I, Melvin Chrismon, bestow upon Ronald Thomas my wavy hair and hope it doesn't make him seasick.

I, Janet Metcalf, leave my title as "Biggest Baby" to my sister, Nancy.

I, Betty Williams, leave my typewriter to Mary Batten.

I, Donald Hawkins, leave the memory of my quietness to the teachers to soothe them when the clamor of exuberant youth tries their patience to the breaking point.

I, Grace Lynch, will my ability to get a gang of girls together to go to the movies to Margaret Brown.

I, David Haith, leave my ability to be seen and not heard to Charles Wright.

I, Jeanette Foster, will my roving eyes to Margaret Sternberg.

I, R. L. Sutton, leave my lost year at Burlington High to Willard King.

I, Jack Boutchyard, bequeath my blue eyes to Elwood Peele in the hope that they will make him more successful with girls.

I, Margaret Boland, will my May Queen crown to a rising Senior girl and hope it will make her as happy as it did me.

I, Tommy Brammer, leave my position as Coach's right-hand man to Max Hyatt.

I, Patsy Barber, leave my driving ability to Geraldine Loy.

I, Bonnie McIntyre, bestow upon Tommie Leigh my long, blond hair.

I, Nancy Whitesell, leave my spelling ability to Jerry Pitts, who needs it desperately.

I, Kathryn Pope, bequeath my position as library assistant to Emma Wagoner.

I, Mary Ann Hodge, leave my sweetness to Rachael Brammer.

I, Edward Powell, leave my diligent studying to Doug Bowden.

I, Grace Massey, will my bruises acquired in basketball to Butch Turner.

I, Ronny Sharpe, entrust Billy Blanchard with my basketball suit and hope he will soon grow into it.

I, Virginia Black, leave my laughter to echo through the halls forever.

I, Kathleen McDonald, bestow upon Annie Mae Wright my habit of trying to do a half dozen things at once.

We, Betty Phillips and Lois Jean Wilson, leave our interest in the Navy to Nancy Humphrey and Shirley Cardwell.

I, Peggy Barnhardt, will my typewriter to Virgie Perkins.

I, Lucy Everette, bestow upon Jean Loy my ability to wear something different each day.

I, Karen Martin, will my position as Editor of the "Echoes" to anyone who will undertake it (the poor innocent creature).

I, Joanne Brannock, leave my ambition to look down on someone's head to Janet Brammer.

I, Larry Brammer, leave the road to the orphanage open to Darryl Burge.

I, Danny Wagoner, bestow upon Charles Rumbley my ability to be heard from one end of the hall to the other.

I, Wiley Nance, leave my innocent looks to George Horner.

I, Charles Holt, just leave.

We do hereby subscribe our names and affix our seal this, the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-three.

EDWARD POWELL
President

Student Council

To create better school spirit, better cooperation between students and teachers, and respect for the school and its property is the purpose of the Student Council. This is achieved through various school activities, such as pep rallies, chapel programs by the council, and meetings with student councils of other schools.

The officers are elected by the student body, and the presidents and vice-presidents of the classes are the delegates to the council.

Honor Society

The Honor Society, which we call the B2 Club, was organized to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the students of our school. Our purpose is most appropriately expressed in the club pledge: I pledge to uphold friendship, honor, service, and scholarship in the Elon College Public School.
